

LIVING STONES

common law - common humanity - common sense

---

I must caution you

that I stand under Article 61 of Magna Carta 1215 which was invoked, here in the United Kingdom, in March 2001, being acknowledged and recognized in writing by Her Britannic Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in April 2001.

According to constitutional protocol, any attempt to enforce unlawful Acts, Statutes, or legal regulation upon myself will be taken as an act of high treason for which you will stand trial before a jury of the people. Upon conviction you could face life imprisonment according to the present statutory legislation.

Further, I urge you to remember the precedent of the International Military Tribunal - Nuremberg - November 1945 to October 1946 - where 'only doing my job' was evidenced as 'No defence'.

Also, consider the statutory legislation maxim:

'Ignorance of the statute law is no excuse'

Anything you may say, or any action you may take against myself, will be used before a jury, as you now become personally liable and publicly accountable.

Denying constitutional protocol remains a sedition under common law and carries the risk of full asset stripping along with life imprisonment.

Do you understand this?
